

You can do the REM Measurement with an Aurical or any other typical equipment for this and save the data in NOAH.

Scout is taking the data then from NOAH. You will then see a button in scout on the REUG page where you can "import" the data.

Otherwise scout is using statistic values.